Youth Council Plans for February 11

On February 11, the Middle Schoolers will play "Minute to Win It" games, and other cool stuff. Rumor has it, that there will be Valentine-themed snacks!

While they're doing that, the High Schoolers will be at Barnes and Noble, playing one of our favorite phone-match games.

Please thank the Youth Council for their great plans.

Middle School Moments

This year, February 14 isn't only Valentine's Day- it's also Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. Many people choose to give something up for Lent (like soda, chocolate, or maybe Starbucks!) but you don't HAVE to give something up!

The goal we should have during Lent is to grow closer to God. When people give things up, they are giving things up that they think is standing between themselves and God.

I like to add things instead! You can add a daily devotion, or reading a little of the Bible each day, or commit to be in worship AND Sunday School every week!

What do you think will help you grow closer to God? I'd love to hear your ideas!

See you Sunday!
Rachel

a note from the

YOUTH DIRECTOR

A boy asks his father, "Dad, are bugs good to eat?"

"That's disgusting — don't talk about things like that over dinner," the dad replies.

After dinner the father asks, "Now, son, what did you want to ask me?"

"Oh, nothing," the boy says. "There was a bug in your soup, but now it's gone."

There will be a test later to see who read my dumb joke. Actually, I think we're tested every day. When people know that you attend church/youth group, they begin watching how you act, how you talk, even what you laugh at.

Sometimes, we don't realize that we represent Christianity to others. One of my favorite songs has the line, "they'll know we are Christians by our love."

My prayer for you and me is that we pass the test.

Blessings,
Kim
