

---

January 2019

---

Ask God's blessings for St. Mark's UMC, our pastors and staff and all the ministries, programs and mission opportunities that will happen throughout 2019.

Pray for the St. Mark's UMC volunteers assisting the successful sale of surplus produce via 'Market On The Move' to be held in St. Mark's south parking lot on Saturday morning, January 5. May God bless this effort to provide low cost food stuff in our community.

Pray for good participation as we work with the Rise Against Hunger organization to package 10,000+ meals to help feed a hungry world on Sunday afternoon, January 6.

Pray for good attendance, learning and fellowship time at St. Mark's United Methodist Women's meeting on Tuesday morning, January 8.

Ask God's blessings for our 2019 worship theme, What the Bible Really Says About... Beginning January 13, there will be an introduction to the Bible, how it came to be, etc., In the following weeks and months, we will focus on building what we know about the Bible and what it means for us today.

Pray for good attendance and the opportunity to hear some wonderful music at the various Musical Musing Concerts scheduled at St. Mark's on Sunday afternoons: January 13 & 20, and Thursday evening, January 31.

Ask God's blessings for all those interested in exploring membership at St. Mark's. Classes/discussion will be held on Sundays, January 20 and 27.

Ask God's blessings for the work St. Mark's Finance Committee is doing to establish the 2019 church operating budget, which will be presented and approved at the Covenant Council meeting on Tuesday evening, January 22.

Pray for St. Mark's office staff and others who will provide applicable Leadership Training for Committee, Team and Task Force members on Tuesday evening, January 22.

Pray for St. Mark's Covenant Council meeting on Tuesday evening, January 22.

Pray for a successful St. Mark's Early Childhood Center's Rummage Sale on Saturday morning, January 26.

Pray for good attendance and lots of fun at the Live Theater Workshop production, The Brave Knight, Sir Lancelot, sponsored by St. Mark's Family Ministries, on Saturday evening, January 26.

Pray for refugee Noor Alsabahi and for the showing of the "Something Like Home" movie, about her life at The Loft theater on Sunday afternoon, January 27, Ask God's blessing for the net ticket sale proceeds going to The INN Project in Tucson.

Mark Conrad, South District Superintendent asks us to pray for the churches and pastors of Huachuca UMC, First UMC in Bisbee and Patagonia Community UMC during the month of January.

people without a church home and build on the good worship and serving God opportunities that happens at, and from 1431 W Magee Road.